Women Are The First Nurturers— Producing and Raising
Both Male and Female, Who Are Destined to Govern Society.
A Nation of People CANNOT Rise Higher Than It's WOMEN.

Will
The Children
Rule The World?

All individuals are mortal, and the destiny of the world, the ruling and the being ruled is all in the hands of the children. Those who rule today were the children of yesterday and will be dust tomorrow.

That is the law of human life.

It means that “a mother is the holiest thing alive”, that history is made in the nursery, that the bringing up of children is the noblest, the purest, and the most necessary work in the world, and the most difficult, just because the human being is so wonderful and complicated in the nature of his mind and his body.

—From the Book of Knowledge Collection

I recognized through observance and experience that this would be a good time to write a booklet based on the responsibilities of the Woman, both spiritual and physical, in connection with the raising of children, particularly male children, in the western hemisphere. The true and proper governing of men and women begins with the raising of children, as this is where governing of self and others is taught.

Too often women complain about men, yet they do not take into consideration that men are raised and influenced by women. Often they fail to see that the condition of the men is a direct result of, and reflects the condition of the women and of her determinations of how societies are run, as she is the major influence.

Think about this, many women expect some other mother to raise a son or a daughter that is good enough for them, or for their daughters and sons to mate with, without the knowledge that they have to collectively raise them to be good, productive and responsible, possessing of principles and ethics. This certainly involves culture and cultivation.

The Womb is the First School

We are all taught through the womb, whether we are conscious of it or not, this is where the teachings begin. Therefore by natural mandate and order, it is necessary for women to be aware and prepared to receive and impart innate knowledge to their sons and daughters in the womb. This is a true aspect of pre-natal care. When you think of anything in the physical, you must think about its origin. Thought is the seed / origin of all matter. Before anything can be manifested in the physical plane, it takes root in the spiritual plane, utilizing the ethers and in rhythm with the ebb and flow energies of life — The rhythm of Life. All thoughts, all things have an origin, an atom, the soul of the matter. Matter: a. the element in the universe that undergoes formation and alteration. b. the formless substratum of all things which exist only potentially and upon which, form acts to produce reality. Since women bring life into form from the spiritual to the physical, they need to be aware of what they are bringing in.

Bringing In The Souls

Souls are the seeds of the Cosmic Mother. In order for a soul to enter the physical plane, it must take on a physical form (matter). That form is the body which is built in the womb in the course of nine (9) months from conception to birth. The body (physical form) is the Temple of the soul of man (Solomon's Temple). Solomon's Temple is not spooky or mysterious, nor is it possessed of dogmatic psuedo-religion. However, due to a great lack of general knowledge, many have believed it is. From now on, when you hear of "Solomon's Temple", know that it refers to your physical body which houses the soul. When a woman is pregnant, her stomach, by way of the stretching of the uteral muscle, creates a perfect arc. This is the "Arc of the Covenant". The covenant is the agreement to bring the souls into physical form. Women have an awesome responsibility. When you hear talk of the Grand Architect that built Solomon's Temple in the darkness with no tools, and no sound, you now know, if you didn't before, that they are speaking of you, made and born of your mother (the grand architect). Loss of this simple knowledge is a result of an intervention or diversion, visited upon the woman. This intervention / diversion happened on the surface, but created an altering of the mind on a deep unconscious level, which caused women, for the most part, to disconnect with their innate responsibilities which are in harmony with nature, i. e., the development of beings. This is an obvious function for women, and only women, to re-create or reproduce herself. Only she does that, no one else— nothing else. She is the womb of the universe. All beings come to life through the womb. (Just as Yeshuah did (Jesus)).

The intervention / diversion goes way back in history, and it repeats itself as it is perpetual. It will keep repeating itself, unless and until we break the chain. As a result of the diversion or intervention, she became a victim of herself, lost in her own duties and expecting of someone else (her sons) to do her job. She forgot that she was the Matriarch and began looking outside of herself for "God", wherein she adopted idol god worship. Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's, means to give the idol god worship of the Romans/European—back to them.

What Happened To The Matriarch?

The universe always has been and always will be matriarchal by nature. We were forced into patriarchal dogmatic society as a destructive product of the intervention / diversion (the Crusades). The forceful purpose of the Crusades was to destroy the Matriarch and introduce a Patriarchal system which took not too many, generations to fulfill. They created without a doubt Christianity out of the Political Order of Christendom and forced the "belief system", out of which you have a people tagged as the "Believers" of today. Although belief is necessary to teach the initiates or the children, it is also very necessary that one graduates into knowledge or knowing. The Patriarchal system is out of order with nature and does not possess logic or common sense. Because it is out of order, it cannot, and will not stand. This is why you are witnessing the fall of any, and all, institutions that support it, or are supported by it. What you are witnessing is the fall of an un-natural order and the disillusion of untruths. Truth and Facts are colliding with Belief and Falsehood. With the advent of a false belief system suddenly matter appeared to be without order. In fact if you look up the word matter under the Christian Science definition, (which is found in the dictionary), it reads as follows: matter: the illusion that the objects perceived by the physical senses have reality of substance.

The intervention and diversions of the Matriarchal society started long ago. As far back as the Punic Wars— Wars of the Phoenicians which merged into the Christian Crusades, the Battle of Tours or Portier, (one of the most decisive World Wars with Charles Martel, Charles the Hammer, leading the Crusades). This led eventually to the Battle of Lake Michigan, and the Spanish American War, (fought on North American Soil), then there was the French Revolution, which inspired the American Revolution and out of the American Revolution came the “Daughters of the American Revolution” (DAR). The DAR taught their Sons from the womb to have a psychological superior position over your Sons, over the world for that matter. Those Daughters (Mothers) of the American Revolution, revolted against the society, as it were, and made sure their sons were taught in the womb, and came out of the womb with this authoritative demeanor. Those Sons founded the Klu Klux Klan, Knights of Columbus, various Masonic Orders, ie, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, Shriners, etc. Lastly there was the Civil War, one of the final nails in the coffin of the Matriarchal Society, or of natural living and natural people.

Further destruction of the psyche of the matriarch (mother) was when she witnessed the mutilation and murder of her babies, her sons, daughters and her men. She was traumatized by the sight of the womb being cut open and babies dropping to the ground. She was traumatized when they tied each limb of her man (sons), to a different horse and sent them off in different directions. She was traumatized into disconnecting with her babies, as she knew they would be taken away and sold on the auction block. She has always been the target. This is the basis of the modern psychological state of the woman. She is still in shock and while in that state, she has sold out herself and her babies to the very system that enslaves her and her babies. She must first be awakened and get back in touch with knowledge of self, so she may put things back in order, teach from the womb again and redeem humanity.

It is the Woman Who has Fallen

However, the man, has no other choice but to fall, if she has. He diligently tried to take up the charge, he held ground fiercely, with brute determination to carry out the quest of the Mother. She and only she has the ability to bring and teach souls of a higher vibration. Of course, she must be in a higher consciousness herself first. Unfortunately when she went to sleep, so did he. She stopped teaching him from the womb and sent him out into the world unequipped. Hence, a people cannot rise higher than its women.

The Woman, Where is She today? What is She Doing?

Women are the ones behind the scenes running institutions, organizations and associations. She makes all of them work; Churches, Hospitals, Jails, Synagogues, Temples, Schools, Organizations, Associations, Offices, Satellite Offices, Home Offices, Central Offices, Branch Offices, etc., etc. Without her support, these institutions would not run. If She has all of this power, and she does, why isn't she cognizant of her own womb power? Why isn't it clear to her, that she produces the men and women of society. It is up to her how society is governed, although she may not be conscious of this, governing principles are taught as children are being raised. Of course, by her failing to do so, she has become the complainer of the very thing she is ultimately in control of. Organizations are put in place to deal with the symptoms of her problem, but not the problem. The women fund and or support those very organizations that are set up to keep her womb enslaved? If she had self knowledge, she would not continue to support that which is enslaving her and her babies. By doing so she works against herself. Some of these organizations may have good intentions, however, as dictated in nature, no one raises children better than the Mother who brought them here. Mothers have to be more responsible. We have an abundance of Mothers, who are bringing souls in and not being responsible. These souls, have an agenda as well, all that lives, wants to live. They come from the door, with the struggle to free themselves from the constraints, and the already set-up institutionalized slavery system, which is designed to have them locked up for most of their life, if not by physical lock-up, certainly mentally. Parents must be aware of the conditions they bring their children into and what they are passing on to their children. Most parents don't, or won't educate their own children, mainly because the children are looking for some facts, not beliefs and the parents have not done enough studies on their own to pass correct information to their children. This type of activity is in great part responsible for the children becoming walking time bombs, who take out their aggressions on society, as they are a product of society aren't they?

For those of us who blame their condition on slavery and oppression but cannot put their finger on it. The fact is that slavery is now institutionalized. Upon that recognition, know that the slaveholders, are comfortable to see these conditions as it makes their stronghold, stronger. So who is really the subjugated ones, the parents or the children, or both? As the condition of the parent, especially the mother, perpetuates the condition of the children and thus the society. Yet we talk about the condition of the children, as if it is disconnected from us as a whole. When children are dying younger and younger, it is a sign of extinction.
