SEC. 15. All acts of any inhabitant of the United States shaming to induce persons held in service or labor to abandon the service for which they are held, or to procure the liberty of any person held in service or labor, shall be deemed a violation of the laws of the several States and the United States respectively, and shall be punished as such.

Sec. 16. Any person who shall violate this act shall be subject to the same punishment as if he had participated in the commission of any of the acts prohibited by said act.

Sec. 17. Any person who shall willfully hinder, impede, or impede the execution of this act, or aid in the commission of any of the acts prohibited by said act, shall be punished as if he had participated in the commission of the same.

Sec. 18. The persons who shall be convicted of the violation of this act shall be deemed guilty of the crime of sedition, and shall be punished as such.

Sec. 19. Any person who shall make use of any false or malicious report for the purpose of hindering, impeding, or impeding the execution of this act, or aiding in the commission of any of the acts prohibited by said act, shall be punished as if he had participated in the commission of the same.

Sec. 20. Any person who shall willfully interfere with any person who shall be employed in the execution of this act, or who shall willfully hinder, impede, or impede the execution of this act, shall be punished as if he had participated in the commission of the same.

Sec. 21. Any person who shall willfully
interfere with any person who shall be
execution of this act, shall be punished as
same.

Sec. 22. Any person who shall willfully
interfere with any person who shall be
